5. Validity of Proposal: Proposal shall be valid for acceptance for a period of at least 180 (One Hundred and Eighty) days from the last date of submission of bid. The Bid with lesser validity period is liable to be rejected. However, the validity period of the proposal can be extended for a further period, if required, with mutual consent of the concerned parties.

6. Pre-Bid Meeting: A pre-bid meeting will be held on 22/07/2025 at 3.00 P.M in the office of the Commissioner, Panchayat & Rural Development, Assam, Panjabari, Juripar, Guwahati-37. The purpose of the meeting is to address queries raised by the prospective training providers regarding the RFP. Training providers are encouraged to attend to seek clarification on any aspect of the tender.

Note: Any changes to the RFP, based on discussions in the pre-bid meeting, shall be communicated through an official corrigendum.

7. Evaluation of Proposals: Preliminary scrutiny of proposals will be done to determine whether the proposals are generally in order & complete and if the requisite documents have been properly furnished by the Training Provider or not. Proposals not conforming to the requirements will be rejected from further selection process. Training Providers (TPs) who have previously undertaken assignments under this office in either Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) or Short Term Training (STT) mode will be subject to a performance review. Their past performance shall be duly evaluated and considered as a critical criterion prior to empanelment

8. Performance Security: Within 7 days after award of Preliminary Work Order, the Training Providers shall must have to furnish a Performance Security in form of the BG/ FDR/TDR amounting to 5% of the contract value in favour of “Commissioner, Panchayat & Rural Development, Assam, Panjabari, Juripar, Guwahati-37” and the same shall be returned at the time of release of final payment subject to successful completion of the contract.

9. Contract Negotiation: Contract negotiations will be held at the date, time and address as intimated to the selected Training Providers. The invited Training Providers will, as a pre-requisite for attendance at the negotiations, confirm availability of all the proposed staff for the assignment. Representative conducting negotiations on behalf of the Training Providers must have written authority to negotiate and conclude a contract. Negotiation will be performed covering technical, availability of proposed professionals etc.

10. Award of Contract: After completion of the contract negotiation stage, the procuring entity will notify the successful Training Providers in writing by issuing a Preliminary Work Order for signing of the Agreements and promptly notify the all-other Training Providers about the results of the selection process. The successful Training Providers will be asked to sign the Agreement after fulfilling all formalities within 7 days of the issuing a Preliminary Work Order shall be made except by written amendment signed by both the parties. The agreement would be valid for 12 (Twelve) months from the date of effectiveness of the contract and may be extended on mutual consent as per rules. Sub-contracting is not allowed under this agreement.

Note: Issuance of work orders for training shall be solely at the discretion of the Commissioner, Panchayat & Rural Development Department, Assam. Such work orders will be issued as and when required, during the validity of the agreement. The selected agency shall have no claim or right to demand work orders beyond what is expressly sanctioned by the Department.

11. Time: Time is the essence of the contract. The time allowed for the start of trainings shall be strictly followed otherwise the bidder shall be liable to pay compensation at the rate of 0.2 % of the total contract value/part work order value per day of delay on the part of the bidder subject to a maximum of 5 % of the total contract value. The decision of the procuring entity about the delay shall final and binding.

12. Conflict of Interest: Conflict of interest exists in the event of (a) Conflicting assignments, typically monitoring and evaluation/assessment of the same project by the eligible Training Provider. (b) Training Providers (Individuals or Organizations) who have a business or family relation with the procuring entity directly or indirectly. (c) Practical prohibition under the anti-corruption of the Government of India and Government of Assam. The Training Providers are to be careful so as not to give rise to a situation where there will be any conflict of Interest with the procuring entity as this would amount to their disqualification and breach of contract.

13. Disclosure: (a) Training Provider has an obligation to disclose any actual or potential conflict of interest. Failure to do so may lead to disqualification of the Training Provider or termination of its contract. (b) Training Provider must disclose if there are or have been the subject of any proceedings (such as blacklisting) or other arrangements relating to bankrupt, insolvency or the financial standing of the Training Provider, including but not limited to appointment of any officer such as a receiver in relation to the Training Provider's or of any other similar proceedings. (c) Training Providers must disclose if they have been convicted of or are the subject of any proceeding related to (i) A criminal offence or other serious offence punishable under the law of the land, or where they have been found by any regulator or professional body to have committed professional misconduct. (ii) Corruption including the offer or receipt of an inducement of any kind in relation to obtaining any contract. (iii) Failure to fulfil any obligations in any jurisdiction relating to the payment of taxes or social security contributions.

14. Anti-corruption Measures: (a) Any effort by Training Provider to influence the procuring entity in the evaluation and ranking through financial proposals and recommendation for award of contract may result in the rejection of the proposal. (b) A recommendation for award of contract shall be rejected if it is determined that the recommended Training Provider has directly or through an agent, engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive or coercive practices in competing for the contract of question. In such cases, the procuring entity shall blacklist the Training Provider either indefinitely or for a stated period of time, disqualifying it from participating in any related bidding process for said period.

15. Language of Proposal: The proposal and all related correspondence exchanged between the Training Provider and the procuring entity shall be written in the Assamese/English language. Supporting documents and printed literature that are part of the proposal may not be in any other language provided they have accompanied by an accurate translation of the relevant passages in English with self-certification for accuracy as in which case for the purposes of interpretation of the proposal, the translated version shall govern.

16. Cost of Bidding: The Training Provider shall bear all costs associated with the preparation and submission of its proposal. The procuring entity shall not be responsible or liable for those costs, regardless of the conduct or outcome of the selection process.

17. Legal Jurisdiction: All legal disputes are subject to the jurisdiction of civil court of Guwahati only.

18. Governing Law and Penalty: The rights and obligations of the procuring entity and the Training Provider under this contract will be governed by the prevailing laws of Govt. of Assam, Govt. of India. Failure on Training Provider's part to furnish the deliverables as per the agreed time line will enforce a penalty as per the rules and laws of Govt. of Assam.

19. Confidentiality: Information relating to evaluation of proposals and recommendation concerning awards shall not be disclosed to the Training Provider who submitted the proposals or to other persons not officially concerned with the process, until the publication of the award of contract. The undue use of confidential information by any Training Provider related to the process may result in rejection of its proposal and may be subjected to the provisions of procuring entity's anti-fraud and anti-corruption policy. During the execution of the assignment except with prior written consent of the procuring entity, the Training Provider or its personnel shall not at any time communicate to any person or entity any confidential information acquired in the course of the contract.

20. Amendment of the RFP Document: At any time before submission of proposals, the procuring entity may amend the RFP by issuing an addendum/amendment on the e-procurement portal <https://assamtenders.gov.in> and the official website <https://rural.assam.gov.in>. Any such addendum/ amendment will be binding on all the Training Providers. To give Training Providers reasonable time in which to take an addendum/amendment into account preparing their proposals, procuring entity may, at its discretion, extend the deadline for the submission of proposals.

21. Procuring entity's right to accept any proposal and to reject any or all Proposals: The procuring entity reserves the right to accept or reject any proposal, and to amend the bidding/selection/evaluation process and reject all proposals at any time prior to award of contract, without assigning any reason thereof and thereby incurring any liability to the organization.

22. Entitlement & Rights: The Commissioner, Panchayat & Rural Development, Assam shall be entitled to all intellectual property and other proprietary rights including but not limited to patents, copyrights and trademarks with regard to documents and other materials which bear a direct relation to or are prepared or collected in consequence or in the course of the execution of this contract. At procuring entity's request, the organization shall take all necessary steps to submit them to procuring entity compliance with the requirement of the contract.

23. Replacement of Key Personnel: The Key professionals to be deployed under this contract must be dedicated in nature. However, the procuring entity reserves the right to request the organization to replace the assigned personnel if they are not performing to the level of satisfaction. After writing notification the organization will provide CV of appropriate candidates within 7 (seven) days for review and approval. The organization must replace the personnel within 7 (Seven) working days from the date of approval of replacement. If any one of the key personnel become unavailable /leave the project for any reason midway under the contract, the organization must notify the procuring entity at least 14 (fourteen) days in advance, and obtain the approval prior to making any substitution. In notifying by the procuring entity, the organization shall provide an explanation of circumstances necessitating the proposed replacement and submit justification and qualification of replacement personnel in sufficient details to permit evaluation of the impact on the engagement. Acceptance of the replacement person by the procuring entity shall not relieve the organization from responsibility for failure to meet the requirements of the contract. Change in key professionals beyond the allowable limit of the contract leads to implication of liquidated damage.

24. Scope of Work:
