Core Responsibilities

Leveraging CSR towards Sports Development:

Using CSR funds for sports aligns seamlessly with the Companies Act, 2013, which permits CSR investments in sports promotion under Schedule VII. This provides a unique opportunity to drive community development while fostering a culture of health, fitness, and inclusivity. CSR can support:

- Sports Infrastructure: Building, renovating and maintaining sports facilities
- Athlete Support: Financial assistance, travel sponsorship, and scholarships
- Grassroots Development: Promoting rural and traditional sports, school sports programs, selection of athletes through a well-structured funnel
- Inclusivity in Sports: Encouraging female participation and funding initiatives for differently-abled athletes
- International trainings: An exception has been made by Govt of India that only for training of Indian sports personal, an activity outside India is allowed which shall be considered under CSR; otherwise no other activity undertaken by any company outside India is allowed under CSR

Planning and Strategy

- CSR Fund Mapping: Identify potential CSR contributors, including PSUs, corporates, and financial institutions, aligned with Telangana's sports development goals.
- Project Scoping: Collaborate with the Government of Telangana to outline priority areas such as infrastructure upgrades, athlete support, and grassroots programs.
- Proposal Creation: Develop tailored proposals and presentations for potential donors, emphasizing the alignment of their CSR goals with Telangana's vision.

CSR Fund Mobilization :

- Donor Engagement: Reach out to identified contributors with targeted pitches, showcasing successful CSR models like JSW's, Infosys', Reliance's and Tata's.
- Relationship Building: Conduct one-on-one meetings with corporates and PSUs to establish partnerships, secure commitments, and address their concerns.
- Securing Early Contributions: Focus on securing immediate funds for urgent needs, such as athlete support, while laying the groundwork for larger investments.

Execution and Coordination

- Local Coordination: Appoint a highly-qualified local coordinator to facilitate smooth communication between government authorities, corporates and on-ground teams. This ensures alignment of activities and minimizes delays. activities, ensuring seamless communication with all the stakeholders.
- Project Management: Act as an oversight partner to track project milestones, provide regular updates and ensure transparency in fund utilization.
- CSR Reporting and Communication: Develop periodic progress reports and CSR communication materials, such as success stories and impact films, to keep all stakeholders informed and engaged.
- Resolution and Escalation: Serve as a point of contact for resolving challenges or bottlenecks in project implementation, ensuring swift escalation and resolution with the relevant authorities.

Addressing Gaps and Scaling Up

- Immediate Needs: Mobilize additional funds to address smaller but critical requirements, such as financial assistance for athletes, grassroots initiatives and school sports programs.
- Gap-Filling Contributions: Engage corporates to sponsor specific needs, such as equipment, travel and local tournaments, ensuring every aspect of Telangana's sports vision is supported. Phase V: Impact Assessment and Future Planning.
- Monitoring and Evaluation: Track the outcomes of all projects to ensure alignment with objectives and provide measurable impact reports.
